

What a way to beat the heat! Newark Police Officers Jacob Jackson & Ethan Derr, who normally work the overnight shift, patrolled the streets of Newark on Thursday afternoon June 04, 2020 looking to "cool" kids down. Their idea was to hit the streets and hand out ice cream sandwiches, Rocket popsicles and Fudgsicles to children throughout the community. On this 90-degree day they were able to "cool" off over 100 kids.
