vintage rosemond

Violet Marut is the owner and fashion savvy brains behind Vintage Rosemond, a fashion brand focused on collecting extraordinary, modern and one-of-kind designer vintage pieces. The name 'Rosemond' was coined as a nod to Dame Elizabeth Rosemond Taylor, considered one of the last vestiges of the Hollywood Golden era. The extensive array of clothing and accessories in the Vintage Rosemond collection has appeared in fashion magazines, on the big screen, television shows, and they are purchased by celebrities and fashionistas around the world.

Says Violet, "I've always enjoyed fashion, but I didn't discover the intoxicating world of vintage clothing until

I moved to Los Angeles in 1996. The longevity of vintage compared to modern clothes simply amazes me. Owning a vintage piece is owning one-of-a-kind; a collectible with history that has survived many, many years and is now passed on to someone else to enjoy. I'm an artist and clothing is a form of art for me. I so very much enjoy the search to find something new with the mastery of bringing the old to light. Vintage Rosemond participates in vintage markets throughout the United States including, 'A Current Affair' in Los Angeles, New York and the Bay area. Our unique clothes and assortment of collectible accessories appear in numerous fashion shows; we meet with entertainment stylists, buyers, and consign our designer vintage pieces with elite clothing boutiques. Our company offers buyers something special and timeless. We pride ourselves on our unusual taste in elegant apparel and accessories, as well as bold pieces that enhance even the most comprehensive high-end wardrobe."

Vintage Rosemond has an extensive collection which includes a wide variety of popular designers from a broad range of time periods. Long established contacts within the clothing industry—from celebrities to collectors and retail buyers— Vintage Rosemond is for everything you've ever dreamed of wearing, and the clothes are for the fun and fab and young at heart in each of us. ■
