

Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education E-Newsletter

January 2019

FREE CLE - Adult Civics Education (ACE)
Louisiana State Bar Association MidYear Meeting
January 17, 2019, 9 - 12 pm
Baton Rouge Renaissance Hotel

Earn CLE credit while learning about adult civics education presentations in your community. You will receive expert training by the co-founders of the Florida Bar's highly successful Benchmarks Adult Civics Education program. Participants are encouraged to but not required to making an ACE presentation in their community.

No fees to attend. 2.75 hours CLE credit. Enrollment is limited. To register, email Peggy.Cotogno@LSBA.org or call 504-566-1600, ext 134.

ACE is made possible by a partnership of the Louisiana District Judges Association, Louisiana State Bar Association and Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education.

Planning Career Day Activities?
Have a Lawyer or Judge Visit Your School

School administrators, teachers, judges and lawyers interested in participating in Middle and High School Career Day activities are encouraged to contact the LCLCE office today! Schools requesting a legal professional for their Career Day activities will be matched up with volunteer lawyers and judges from their community. This is a free service. Call or email Peggy.Cotogno@LSBA.org, 504-566-1600 ext. 134.

Nominations Sought for "Civics in Action" Student Award

Do you know a student who has made a difference or an improvement of the quality of life in their school, home, or community through the use of civic engagement? The LCLCE recognizes a Louisiana middle or high school student who exemplifies what it means to be an engaged citizen.

The award application process is simple. Deadline for 2019 submissions is March 22, 2019. For more information, click here.

Apply Today for the American History & Civics Academies Free Summer Institute for Teachers and Students

Are you a teacher of high-need students interested in receiving free, high-quality professional development in history and civics this summer? Apply for the Center for Civic Education's two-week American History & Civics Academies. This opportunity is also open to highly motivated students who will be seniors in 2019-20. We strongly encourage teams of one teacher and two students to apply conjointly from the same school or school district. Space is limited, and the deadline to apply is March 1, 2019.

Learn more and apply.

Attorney Job Positions

The Louisiana State Bar Association has a current listing of job opportunities in the legal field. To view these opportunities click here.

About the LCLCE

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education (LCLCE) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. It is the public education arm of the Louisiana State Bar Association. It is financially assisted, in part, by the Interest on Lawyers Trust Accounts program through the Louisiana Bar Foundation and by private contributions.