Nicole E Brewer

Let me introduce myself.....

I am a long-term resident of the westside area of Cleveland. I am active Christian that participates in a variety of different capacities and organizations. Although I do not have my own kids, I have been blessed with “adopted” kids and grandkids, nieces and nephews. In my spare time, I enjoy landscaping, gardening, music, skydiving and just about any outdoor activity. More importantly, I am a licensed independent insurance and investment advisor/ business owner.

Prior to entering the financial services industry, I was a teacher and worked at both the high school and college levels. My father retired from the federal government and my mother from state teachers and school employee systems. So you can see, I have a lot of experience with federal & state-based benefits systems. This personal experience combined with my most recent degree (a Masters from Bowling Green State University in Professional Training and Curriculum Development), and over 15 years of experience in the financial industry make me uniquely qualified to help you navigate these complex benefits systems.

Uniquely Qualified.....

- Life, Health & Annuity Insurance License
- Licensed Securities Professional
- Certified Long Term Care Consultant (CLTC)
- Chartered Federal Employee Benefit Consultant Professional (ChFEBCsm)
- Certified Member of Wealth & Wisdom Institute (W&W)

- Secretary of Olmsted Falls Chamber of Commerce
