

Morley, James

James Morrison Morley, 36, of Paden, Oklahoma, died suddenly on Thursday, October 7, 2004, after a long illness. Mr. Morley was born May 8, 1968 in Detroit. James was a 1986 graduate of Reeths Puffer High School, Muskegon, where he was very active on the wrestling team. In September of 1986, he joined the Air Force and was stationed in San Antonio for a short time. He worked for Pinkerton Security in Michigan and Oklahoma. He is survived by his mother, Merrily (McGuirk) Kirchen and step-father, Michael Kirchen, of Georgetown, Texas; grandparents, Bernard and Cecelia Morley, of Bad Axe; aunt, Nancy Holz and her husband, Robert, of Bad Axe; sisters, Patricia and Hassan Sleiman, of Norman, Oklahoma, Bridget and Dewayne Tolson, of Noble, Oklahoma, Heather and Barry Long, of Oklahoma City, Erika and Dirk Peterman, of Greenfield; brother, Bernard J. Morley, of Muskegon; step-brothers, Michael Kirchen, Jr., of Denver, Colorado, Jon and Heather Kirchen, of Moore, Oklahoma; one niece and several nephews. Jim was preceded in death by his father, Edwin James Morley. A memorial service will be conducted at the First Presbyterian Church in Bad Axe with interment at Colfax Township Cemetery. The date for the memorial service is to be determined.