

Bloodstain Pattern Analysis I

Libra Forensic Consulting is offering a 40 hr. BPA course. This course is designed for any officer or technician involved in criminal or forensic investigations. The course will allow the attendee to demonstrate knowledge of the terminology, history, science and mathematics surrounding bloodstain pattern analysis. The objectives of this course follow the requirements of the International Association of Bloodstain Pattern Analysis and the IABPA approves our course.

For info email:
melissa@libraforensics.com

Course Objectives:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the development & history of BPA
- Demonstrate understanding of the limitations of BPA
- Identify proper and improper protective measures to follow in a scene
- Recognize both spatter and non-spatter bloodstain patterns
- Determine impact angles, area of convergence and origin for impact spatter patterns
- Demonstrate the ability to document bloodstains and bloodstain patterns for courtroom purposes
- Demonstrate the ability to recognize patterns and describe them with correct terminology

Register directly though:
www.ucnj.org

John H. Stamler Police Academy
Scotch Plains, NJ
July 22-26, 2019

1776 Raritan Road
Scotch Plains, NJ 07076

Hours - 9:00am - 5:00pm
Casual or Class B Uniform
Bring Duty Camera Equipment
if possible

Course fee: $495
Payment accepted through PayPal, check or purchase order.

(908) 380-8673