

AGNES L. HOEH

1916 - 1983

Agnes Louise Hoeh, age 67, of Sebewaing, passed away Wednesday, Nov. 23 in Midland Hospital, Midland, following a long illness.

Mrs. Hoeh was born Agnes Louise Dubey on April 17, 1916 in Bay Port, daughter of Arthur Louis Dubey and Louise (Buerker) Dubey. On June 10, 1946, she and James Albert Hoeh, Sr., were united in marriage in Saginaw. She was a member of Holy Family Catholic Church.

Survivors include her husband, James Albert Hoeh, Sr., of Sebewaing; a son, Bernard C. Hoeh of Sebewaing; a daughter, Mrs. Gary (Julie) May of Elkton; one stepson, James Albert Hoeh, Jr. of Grosse Point Farms; three grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Edward (Margaret) Jerome of Florida and Mrs. Genevieve Warner of Midland and two brothers, James Dubey of Pigeon and Robert Dubey of Bay Port. One brother, John Dubey, predeceased his sister.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, Nov. 23 at the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home, Sebewaing. The Rev. Fr. Stanley Surman, pastor of Holy Family Catholic Church, officiated with burial in Memorial Park Cemetery.