“In this beautiful book, “I Shall Not Want,” Robert Ketchum tells of a Sunday School teacher who asked her group of children if anyone could quote the entire 23rd Psalm. A golden-haired, four -and -a -half year old girl was among those who raised their hands. A bit skeptical, the teacher asked if she could really quote the entire psalm. The little girl came to the front of the room, faced the class, made a perky little bow, and said, “The Lord is my shepherd, that’s all I want.” She bowed again and went and sat down. That may well be the greatest interpretation of the 23rd Psalm ever heard!

*O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor we pray, on your servants as they begin another year.
Grant that they March grow in wisdom and grace,
and strengthen their trust in your goodness, all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen*

*A preachers' young daughter noticed that her father always bowed his head and closed his eyes for a few seconds before he went to the pulpit to preach.

When she asked him why he did that, he explained, "I'm asking god to help me preach a good sermon."

His daughter thought about it for a minute and said, "Well daddy, why doesn't he do it?"
