Greetings Central Ohio Business Owner!

Don't miss this opportunity to display & sell your merchandise at the highly anticipated:

Four Seasons of Gardening – Spring Conference - Saturday, April 1, 2017

*For Gardeners by Gardeners presented by the Licking County Master Gardener Volunteers
& The Ohio State University Extension - Licking County*

Attendance at our annual spring conference has grown with each year. This will be our 16th year and we anticipate a record attendance. A destination event, attendees will spend the entire day attending seminars, demonstrations, perusing vendor tables and purchasing items to enhance their own garden experience.

Our event venue is C-TEC/Career & Technology Education Center, 150 Price Road, Newark. Based upon feedback from last year, we have created a new Vendor Market Place; vendor tables, displays and demonstrations will be front and center for 2017. Conference attendees will have 2.5 hours of scheduled free time to visit the vendor Market Place!

Reserve Your Vendor Space for the 2017 Four Seasons of Gardening Conference:

- The first 6' table is $20; with additional 6' tables available for $10 each.
- Or all tables are $10 each if an item (valued at $15 or more) is donated to our raffle.
