

DESTINEE BOULDIN- BALLET & POINTE INSTRUCTOR (RECREATIONAL & COMPETITIVE)

Destinee Bouldin was born and raised in Jacksonville, Florida and is currently a student at Towson University with a double major in Dance Performance and Choreography and Deaf Studies. Destinee started dancing at the age of two years old and is technically trained in ballet, contemporary, jazz, tap, pointe, modern, and hip hop. She is a graduate of Lavilla School of the Arts Middle School as well as Douglas Anderson School of the Arts High School. Destinee has performed in the First Coast Nutcracker and Holiday Pops with the Jacksonville Symphony for many years. She was also a competition dancer throughout her middle and high school years at Britney Boyd Dance Company which allowed her to travel as a student assistant with Revel Dance Convention. After college, Destinee plans to dance professionally in a company and teach dance to the disabled, including the hearing impaired. Destinee is so excited to join the N'Ferno dance faculty this season and cannot wait for the fun times she will have!
