A MESSAGE FROM WALK #228 LAY DIRECTOR

Kris Johnson, Central Alabama Walk to Emmaus #122, Table of Anna.
September 2009. We had just married off a daughter the weekend before. Totally exhausted, I had no anticipation. Just looking forward to rest in Him. After 16 years of serving in many areas of the walks I am returning to camp as Lay Director for Walk #228. Once again, I am joyfully looking forward to rest in Him.

For many years I have had the privilege of being the editor of this little-known newsletter. So many times, I have to scramble at the last minute getting the letters to the community from the lay director or spiritual director. Seems fitting that the only item holding me up today is the letter from the lay director. How do you put 16 years of blessings, growth and friendship into a letter. So, thank you, past Lay Directors and Spiritual Directors for your beautiful words of encouragement.

All the ups and downs- exciting stories of how the conference room team came together, how they rose above personal loss and challenges- simply fade when you remember our purpose. To love on the pilgrims. To pray their hearts will be open to encounter God in a most personal way. Your willing hands and feet serving in the background is another blessing on their journey as you display the love of Christ. For those sending agape, praying the prayer vigil, even having virtual volunteers in the Speaker's Prayer Chapel. Thank you.

Sponsors, see you tomorrow at Send Off. Thank you for sponsoring your pilgrims, for calming their fears on the ride to camp. Oh, how your pilgrims will delight in seeing you again at Candlelight and Serenade! And please bring them back to show them the delights of serving.

I am thankful for the many people that have crossed my path during these past 16 years. Many of those people have been an integral part of the new person I am in Him. Walk #228 symbol is "Choose Joy". My joy comes from Him. In good or bad, I have the choice to choose. The simple act of smiling reminds me of His love for me and my love for Him.

Looking forward to meeting many more Emmaus friends in the future as we continue to serve together. We covet your prayers and service.

Choose Joy!

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #228 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

It's so exciting looking ahead to the divine appointment we have with the Holy Spirit on Women's Walk #228. I love gathering with brothers and sisters in Christ to worship God in such a beautiful setting as Camp Alamisco. So, first and foremost, please join me in praying for these precious pilgrims that their eyes will be opened to the love of Jesus Christ.

One of my favorite stories is found in Genesis 27-28. In verse sixteen of chapter 28, Jacob wakes from a dream where he has seen angels climbing up and down a ladder that extended from heaven down to earth. When Jacob woke up, he says; "Surely the Lord is in this place..."

I find it so encouraging that God comes to Jacob at a time when he is running from his family! Jacob sees the glory of God in this place. He sees the hope and the promise for his future – even though he's done nothing to earn it. In fact, he's done almost everything in his power to show how undeserving he is.

Ancient writings record that there are some places on earth where the separation between heaven and earth is narrower-- thinner. A "thin place" is where the veil that separates heaven and earth is lifted, and one is able to receive a glimpse of the glory of God...a place where human beings could more directly and intensely experience God. It's like being able to pull back the veil that separates us from God to vividly reveal his Divine Presence. I believe that these ladies will discover such a "thin place" on CAEW #228, at Camp Alamisco. My prayer for you is that you find God breaking into your heart; and say, like Jacob: "Surely God is in this place."
