Ohio Amish Country Adventure

4 Days June 9-12, 2020

Day 1 – Today travel to Ohio Amish Country. Arrive in Berlin, OH where you check into the Berlin Encore Hotel for a three night stay. This evening, you enjoy dinner at the Farmstead Restaurant. A full hot buffet supper complete with large fresh salad bar and desserts.

Day 2 - After breakfast, meet your local guide for a day of Amish Touring. Begin with a stop at the Lamp and Light Candle for a carving demonstration. Watch the Amish girls create a beautiful hand carved candle!

Next, visit Walnut Creek Brooms where you watch Ada Miller make her quality straw brooms the old fashioned way - by hand. Later you will visit the Homestead Furniture Factory to watch workers create the fine quality furniture the Amish are known for.

This afternoon, enjoy a church lunch typically served at Amish homes along with a talk about Amish church services at the Homestead Event Center. Meal includes lunch meats, cheeses, homemade bread, Amish peanut butter whip, pickles, red beets, and assorted cookies.

Then you visit Yoder's Amish Home for a ride in an authentic Amish Buggy. You will also make a stop at Walnut Creek Cheese for an ice cream treat! Tonight, you enjoy dinner in an Amish home featuring a family-style feast with the family.

Day 3 - Meet your local guide again this morning for another day of touring. First stop today is a visit to the Pioneer Farm Equipment Factory for a tour. Watch the Amish workers create farm machinery and more. Next, visit Lehman's Hardware in Kidron. Lehman's embraces the past, so shop and reminisce your way through thousands of products while browsing the antique collection located throughout the store. Thursday is livestock auction day in Kidron. You will see lots of Amish buggies and people milling about town.

You then enjoy some free time for shopping and lunch on own at Walnut Creek Amish Flea Market, 55,500 sq. ft. of indoor shopping. The Market also features weekly entertainment, one-level shopping, air conditioned, indoor and outdoor eateries. There is also a miniature farm, gorgeous landscaping, and countryside views. Here you will also do a fun scavenger hunt with a prize for the winner.

This afternoon visit Heini's Cheese Chalet. Foodies will love the unique experience of the Copper Kettle Room with sampling and demos of Jams, Jellies, Smoked Meats, sauces as well as Fresh Roasted Peanuts. Next, visit one of the largest bakeries in Amish country - Kauffman's Country Bakery, offering a variety of homemade pastries and baked goods, Kauffman's is known for the quality and freshness of their products. All the products are made by a team of Amish women at the bakery.

A buffet dinner is included this evening the Encore Banquet Hall in the hotel. Baked chicken, ham, mashed potatoes, noodles, vegetables, and hoho cake for dessert.

Following dinner, enjoy a show at the Amish Country Theater. This two hour musical and comedy variety features live music, hilarious comedy skits like Hee Haw live on stage, fabulous ventriloquist Ken Groves, and lots of fun audience participation. Following the show you can go right upstairs to your room.

Day 4 - This morning, you take a guided tour of the Ernest Warther Museum & Workshop. You will have access to Ernest & Frieda Warther Family Home, the Frieda Warther's Button Collection, and to the Warther Grounds & Gardens. After your Museum & Workshop visit, depart and travel home.
