

REPORT OF THE LĀNA'I CULTURE & HERITAGE CENTER

An Invitation to Join Us in the 2009 Nā Hoaloha o Lāna'i Membership Drive

Aloha mai kākou from the Executive Director and Board of the Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center—

This note is sent to you with best wishes and hope that the New Year finds you and your family well. We are happy to share this report of the Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center (Lāna'i CHC) with you, and hope that you will be interested in helping us document, protect, and pass the rich cultural and natural heritage of Lāna'i on to present and future generations. We believe that understanding and honoring our past, enriches our lives, and will benefit the generations that follow us. Lāna'i's rich legacy—spanning almost 1000 years of Hawaiian history, sprinkled with years of missionary endeavors, ranching and sugar plantation operations, the heritage of the Dole-Hawaiian Pineapple Company and the fact that Lāna'i is Hawai'i's last intact plantation town—makes our island home worth knowing, caring about and sharing.

As expressed in our vision and mission statements, our goal is to ensure that the legacy of Lāna'i remains an integral part of our community:

Vision – The Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center seeks to inspire people to be informed, thoughtful and active stewards of Lāna'i's heritage by preserving, interpreting and celebrating its natural history, Hawaiian traditions, diverse heritage and cultures, and ranching and plantation era histories.

Community members and Four Seasons guests joined together in a service project to clean up the historic Kihamāniania church & school house with the Lāna'i CHC (2008).

Mission (Our mission includes, but is not limited to) – Collect, preserve and display artifacts of traditional, cultural, historical and artistic value to the people and island of Lāna'i—representative of Lāna'i's Hawaiian culture, ranching era, diverse populations who built the pineapple plantation and community on the island, and natural history. Such collections will be housed, curated, and displayed in a community museum and natural history center to be managed and operated by the LCHC, in partnership with community and charitable organizations, and other museums in the State of Hawai'i.

Educate and cultivate interest and knowledge in the natural environment, history, folklore, culture, customs and practices of Lāna'i.

Identify and recommend cultural and natural landscapes and archaeological sites of historical importance and interest to Lāna'i for preservation, and to determine levels of access and interpretation.

Study and promote awareness of the unique environment and ecosystems of Lāna'i. Develop programs to ensure preservation of the island's endemic and indigenous life forms.

We invite you to join the hundreds of people and organizations who have already committed to the effort of perpetuating Lāna'i's diverse cultural and natural histories, and thank you for your consideration of our request.

Overview of the first 15 months of Operation

The Lāna'i CHC organized as a community non-profit foundation in 2007. This program is the result of a community vision that was formally laid out in a Memorandum of Agreement in 1987, between concerned community members/organizations, Castle & Cooke, and state agencies. It took nearly 20 years, but at last, this community vision is well on the road to being fully implemented. In the 15 months since opening its doors as a community non-profit heritage organization (October 1, 2007 to December 31, 2008), Lāna'i CHC has made significant strides. Some of the accomplishments of this program are listed on page 4 of this report.

The Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center Giving Organization—Nā Hoaloha o Lāna'i (The Friends of Lāna'i)

Upon opening the Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center (Lāna'i CHC) as a charitable non-profit heritage program for the people and island of Lāna'i in October 2007, donations to the work began to be made, and a "Friends-Giving" organization under the name of Nā Hoaloha o Lāna'i (Nā Hoaloha) was formed. To recognize the donors, and elicit on-going support, we established Nā Hoaloha as a means of acknowledging the kind contributions of individuals, families, businesses, organizations and foundations.

There was a generous response to the 2008 Nā Hoaloha fundraising drive, and as a result, we engaged in a number of important cultural-historical programs, including publication of historical accounts, brochures and flyers; development of interpretive exhibits; development of the Lāna'i Culture & Heritage Center website (www.LanaiCHC.org); engaged in further research and development of archival collections; sponsored several field programs; and remained open throughout the year, with regular hours of operation.

Our past success is a result of the generous contributions of the people and organizations listed below. Our future success will rely upon continued support from individuals, families organizations, foundations and businesses. The Board, Executive Director, and Volunteers of the Lāna'i CHC are deeply humbled by your support, care and friendship – Mahalo a nui!

MAHALO A NUI TO ALL OF YOU –

E Ho'ohanohano 'ana i ka wā ma mua, a e Ho'olako 'ana i ka mua aku!
 (Honoring the past, and Enriching the future!)

Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs on Lānaʻi, discussing the Capital Improvements Grant—an initiative of Trustee Colette Machado—to the Lānaʻi CHC (June 2008).

- More than 6,700 people visited and participated in Lānaʻi CHC programs.
- 142 individuals and organizations have made contributions—totaling nearly $100,000.00—to Nā Hoaloha o Lānaʻi as supporting friends and benefactors. (Donors list online at www.Lanaichc.org)
- Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs approved a $750,000.00 capital improvements grant to the Lānaʻi CHC.
- Castle & Cooke Resorts, LLC has committed $150,000.00 over the first three years of operation.
- Several thousand people also made monetary donations while visiting the Lānaʻi CHC exhibits.
- Donations of Lānaʻi artifacts, plantation family memorabilia, and historical records documenting Lānaʻi's history have been made to the collections.
- The Lānaʻi CHC has published two important historical manuscripts highlighting little known or remembered facets of Lānaʻi's history, and continues to develop publications.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED— NĀ HOALOHA O LĀNAʻI

In January 2008, we established Nā Hoaloha o Lānaʻi (The Friends of Lānaʻi) as the giving organization to support the work of the Lānaʻi CHC. The response to the Nā Hoaloha membership drive was extremely generous, with support from Lānaʻi residents, visitors, organizations, family foundations, and Castle & Cooke. As a result of a generous grant from the Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, we also have the money necessary to renovate a building, as the new museum-exhibit and curatorial facility. The Board and Director of the Lānaʻi CHC are presently negotiating with Castle & Cooke Resorts, LLC, to secure a facility comprising some 2,200 square feet for this purpose. Our big challenge now is to raise funds to cover our annual operating expenses.

Families of Lānaʻi and guests gather for opening of the "War Heroes" Exhibit—a partnership between the LHES Class of 1956 and the Lānaʻi CHC (Dec. 2008).

We are writing, asking for your help in this year's fundraising drive. We humbly invite you to support Nā Hoaloha and the programs of the Lānaʻi CHC in perpetuating the rich cultural and natural history of Lānaʻi.

Your donation qualifies as a tax-deductible contribution. To become a member of the Lānaʻi CHC-Nā Hoaloha program fill out the 2009 membership card, place it with your donation in the return addressed envelope and mail it back to us.

Your membership offers you special opportunities to experience the history and landscape of Lānaʻi and supports work that will benefit present and future generations, while honoring our island heritage. We will also provide you with a letter documenting your donation to be used for your 2009 tax filing.

You may also stop by the Lānaʻi CHC or contact Kepā Maly at kepa@Lanaichc.org or at (808) 565-7177; or visit our website at www.Lanaichc.org for more information and updates.

We are yours with aloha, and look forward to your reply and help in this community effort,
