Just to share a bit of my back story. I received a DUI over 10 years ago in Florida. I did the Suncoast Safety classes, but at the time I was unable to drive. My boyfriend at the time got me to the evaluation 5 minutes late. I was then told by them I would have to pay the outrageous fee again and take the classes again. I refused to give them anymore money and came to terms with using Uber and Lyft.

Over 10 years later I met a gentleman from California that moved to Florida. We then decided it was best for us to move to California together because with his job he makes better money in California. After moving here he expressed that it was best I start working towards my license again.

I research multiple places when I finally reached out to NTSI and spoke with Rodney Stark. He informed me that he has a gentleman named Peter Cusimano that handles all his out of state DUI students. He gave my number to Peter, and within the day he reached out and explained the process and fees. Both men are very polite and explain the process well.

I attended and just finished classes last week and was very happy with all the services. Let me just tell you the guys that did my classes are people that have once been in the shoes of us attending.

Donald- is a straight shooter. He tells his story and tells a lot of facts of how substances affect the body.

Aron- is very textbook. He teaches how to retrain the thought processes of why we had our DUI in the first place.

Richard- is the person you can get phone numbers and information from to gain your hardship license and information to help you get your license back.

All three instructors have different styles of classes but great information in all styles. I mostly appreciated that fact that none of them judge the clients. It's not classes lecturing you to quit drinking but more of lessons on NEVER driving when having those drinks while out to dinner.

I recommend their program to anyone looking to get back on track with court ordered DUI classes and love the fact that they handled my out of state case with ease. Peter is great at his job. Grateful I was about to find someone that is great at his craft of dealing with the difficult cases out of state! I would say i would be happy to return, but I plan on never having to!

Thanks for all your great work and assistance!

★★★★★ VV - 5.0 star rating 3/15/2022

I don't normally take the time to write a review for anyone or anything, but with that being said let me tell you about Peter Cusimano. I recently ran into an issue at work that I had no idea where to start or who to reach out to, to clear it and return back to work. I did everything in my own power that I knew to clear my name and start a process to return back to work.

Long story short, I was ready to give up and find a new job, but it wasn't until I met Peter who talked me through what we should be doing and what should have been done that he gave me hope again to fight on. From the very begging, Peter began to reach out to people from my Employer to find out who to speak to, to get me back to work, and start my RTD process. Let me tell you it wasn't easy, from the start everyone kept playing hot potato and giving the responsibility to someone else. But Peter never gave up and he reached so far up the Management ladder that I finally got a call from a representative from work, that in short explain whatever happened in my case for work should have been handled differently and I should have been directed to her from the start.

I owe Peter a lot. He never saw the task as too difficult and he never got frustrated. Instead, he always kept me calm and said I will take care of this, and to who I need to reach out to, you take care of yourself. He always communicated with me, no matter how small the information may have been. He always kept me informed of who he was speaking to and what they were doing or supposed to be doing on their end. The level of transparency I received from him is something that should be done EVERYWHERE and something that is always hard to come by. Peter, I thank you, and to anyone out there I highly recommend him.

★★★★★ AA - 5.0 star rating 01/28/2022

Peter is oh so courteous, friendly, and helping; truly a caring human being. An on point professional. He helped me get my court ordered substance abuse evaluation ordered by the state of Wyoming done right. Quite expeditious and diligent as well; walking in the door he had all my paperwork from Wyoming and greeted me with a big warm smile Got me in and out in half the time I was expecting. 10/10 would recommend! Thank you so much, Peter!

★★★★★ TS - 5.0 star rating 01/25/2022

Being a resident in California, I did a significant amount of research trying to find a provider that could help me satisfy my Florida citation requirements.

After speaking to 5+ other companies I was introduced to Peter Cusimano @ CADC and quickly realized he was better than every company I spoke to, especially with my out of state / Florida requirements.

Peter was personable, very hands on with my case, plus knows the Florida requirements better than my case officer or the Florida Dept. of Highway Safety.

I'd give Peter and CADC 6 stars if Yelp would allow. Thank you for your professionalism and expertise

Peter Cusimano was an amazing!!! He is extremely professional with every bit of the process and had nothing but my best interest at heart. He doesn't work for the system which is a huge plus for anyone who thinks you're walking into a strict handler of some kind. As long as you're an adult and handle your business and don't waste his time he will have your back 110% of the way. Most painless process and even a lot of good conversations beside the fact that I respect the hell out of this man and if you have the opportunity to work with this man you're lucky, just don't be disrespectful!!!

Peter was extremely pro-active and instrumental in completing my evaluation, setting up my classes and following through with the paperwork. I had multiple States involved and Peter explained in great detail what would be needed for each. Peter was on the phone with these people directly, getting to the bottom of what exactly was needed by them to close out my case. I finished my last class on a Wed night and all paperwork was signed, sealed, delivered and CLOSED Out by the following Monday! He even had the instructor hand me a sealed envelope with copies of all my completion paperwork at the end of my last class. Peter does not mess around!

★★★★★ GS - 5.0 star rating 1/13/2016

Peter really helped me along my out of state DUI process. I had to go to classes to complete my DUI reprimand. Because it happened out of state, I also had to get set up with an evaluator who could administer urine tests to satisfy requirements both for Oregon and for California. He explained everything very clearly and honestly as well as taking a genuine interest in seeing me get my license back and to help me any way he could. Down the road I ran into a snag in which the evaluator from Oregon, where I got the DUI, didn't file the correct paper work. I found out that Oregon has suspended me, unbeknownst. I contacted him and he was on top of it. He told me everything I needed to do and worked hard to help me out to get through it. Very nice and genuine man.

★★★★★ TW - 5.0 star rating 12/10/2015

I attended my classes and did all my requirements quickly. Peter made sure I was on track and helped me to get all the correct paperwork sent off so I could get back on track. I strongly recommend using Peter and everyone at NTSI for all your alcohol & recovery related classes

★★★★★ DA 5.0 star rating 12/11/2015

Peter has first hand knowledge of state laws and relationships with key state agents. I had moved to California, but there was a block on my ability to get my license in California due to some outstanding requirements which needed to be fulfilled in New Jersey. New Jersey had not received my change of address even though I mailed it 2X and therefore they could not communicate with me the requirements. After Peter took my case, he very quickly achieved results. New Jersey and he communicated by phone and he was able to understand the mumbo jumbo of requirements and how to translate them into California law and then to quickly assemble together with New Jersey and NTSI an acceptable course of action to fulfill my requirements to remove the block. He knew the representative who was handling my case and had worked with her in the past. They had mutual trust which was important in this case as paperwork cannot tell the story. So his good working relationship with the representative and his experience with out of state cases, moved me forward in a way that even a lawyer with whom I had consulted in New Jersey could not.

In addition, NTSI collaborated with Peter to provide me with the hours that I needed to complete in the quickest and most convenient way for my work schedule, for which I additionally give Rodney at NTSI great credit as well. Thank you very much Peter and Rodney.
