WGTA Endorses.....

Matt Hudson

Jeff Reina

Greg Stone

Getting to Know the Candidates

Matt Hudson is a parent of four West Genesee students. His wife Kristen, his high school sweetheart, is a Kindergarten teacher at Onondaga Road Elementary. Through his high school and college years, Matt spent most of his summers working on the Hudson family farm in Camillus. A former engineer educated at RIT, Matt was compelled to make a difference in the lives of young people, entering the world of education as a technology teacher at Baker High School in Baldwinsville. He is currently an advisor for the Robotics Club, a Master Teacher for Project Lead the Way, and was also selected to serve as New York State Master Teacher from 2014 to 2017. Both Matt and his wife Kristen have been proud foster parents of many children in Onondaga County.

Jeff Reina is the parent of two current West Genesee students. His wife Courtney, a West Genesee graduate, is an Instructional Specialist at East Hill Elementary. A managing engineer at C&S Engineers, Inc., and Clarkson graduate, Jeff holds a Bachelor of Science degree in both Civil Engineering and Interdisciplinary Engineering and Management. He also holds a Professional Engineer License from the NYS Education Department Office of Professions. He hopes to play an integral role as students and staff in our district move forward, STRONGER TOGETHER!"

Greg Stone graduated from West Genesee with his wife Kristen in 1996 and are the parents of two current West Genesee students. Kristen is an Instructional Specialist at Stonehedge Gold Elementary. After receiving his Bachelor of Arts in Music Education from Ithaca College, he taught Instrumental Music at the elementary and middle school levels. Additionally, he holds a Master of Science in Education, Curriculum and Instruction degree from SUNY Oswego and a Certificate of Advanced Studies (CAS) in Education Leadership at Le Moyne College. Greg is currently the Director of Elementary Education & ELA. His focus and guiding principle is TO DO WHAT IS BEST FOR CHILDREN THROUGH TRANSPARENT LEADERSHIP!
