Course Harbor Pines (69, 1 /122)

Weather Cool 50's One Short Shower

Mike Jeffries nips Jay Griffith by 1 shot on a very wet course with lots of water hazards. Casual water everywhere with all the rain and the snow melt BUT we got to play and the temperature was fine.

 Weather Sunny, low 70s

Greg Cavallo hosts the DGAFI contingent at his club in Naples complete with a home cooked meal of meatballs and gravy plus plenty of wine, beer, and vodka. Not so much to talk about with the golf. Despite playing 5536 yards this was one of the tougher courses we play. Great shape, small, fast, undulating greens and water and or lateral hazards on every hole. 10 equities and best estimate of 20+ lost balls. Lucky we finished with enough ammo. Jim Petronchak nips the field by 1 stroke with a 79, and you wondered why the dinner and drinks were mentioned first.

DGAFL moves north to Cape Coral where Mike Rolph wins by a large margin. Again the golf was less than sterling on a course a little more forgiving but still with quick greens, hidden water and many bad shots. Blame it on the gray and meatballs. The bad golf was capped with a 3hr + ride home for the Tampa contingent- plenty of time to contemplate our sins.

Weather Great Almost 60 on the Back Nine

Jim Rinaldi nips Mark Schuler by one shot. Everyone in the first group shot net 70 - Mike Jeffries did it the hard way with a 40 30 Johnny. We went to Freddy's after the round Pierce St. not far from Elizabeth Avenue - a sports bar Mark had checked out but not enough to know the bartender's name (Nicole). Beer was cold food was ok - plenty of TV's to watch golf, basketball etc. Mike apologizes for not getting the results out by 3 - there was a major accident on 22 he got stuck behind :)

Weather Very Windy Low 50s

Mike Jeffries is low on a very windy day. For example - on a 160 yard par 3 Jim Rinaldi hit driver just off the back pitched on with his wedge and made the putt for a 3. Some holes the wind just made the conditions nuts. We all agreed it is a great layout and we would like to play it again in more friendly conditions. We stopped for lunch at a local watering hole and ran into Mike Kozlow on his way to AC.

Weather Sunny 30's light winds

Jay Griffith and Bob Babetski share first on a day when scoring was tough. A tale of 2 nines - Frozen greens on the front and even chips were running through the green and if you landed in front they didn't bounce. Softer on the back with some casual water from the melting. Mike and Jay both ended up with lost balls on 18 - Jay's on the side on his drive and Mike's in the middle on his second. Jay's nominee Matt came out and shot 91 gross and joined us for refreshments.
