

Summer Reading for Rising 5th Graders

Students are to choose one of the following books to read during the summer:

Rascal – by Sterling North

or

Abe Lincoln – by Sterling North

Directions: Each chapter should be simply summarized in a five sentence paragraph, to be recorded in a composition book. (This book is on the supply list and will be used during next school year.)

Skipping a few lines from the paragraph, the reader should write a prediction of what he/she thinks will happen next.
