

What do you think of Racism?

I think racism is very real in society in people of every educational level. A lack of communication, of not knowing the language is a problem. Racism exists in all countries because it is the human condition. Maria

We look at other people and think that they aren't intelligent. We think that they are lazy or criminals who don't belong in society. Lina

I think that racism should not exist because we are all created by God. God has no concept of special people because we are all equal. He designed us to love. I do not hate. Zoaly

I think racism should not exist. We should all be judged by our actions not because of skin color or nationality. Harison

Racism exists in all countries because it is the human condition. Racism keeps people separate from the rest of the community. It separates countries. Racism causes discrimination and persecution against other ethnic groups. Pedro

How can we change racism?

I think that to change racism we should all love each other as we are. Zoaly
