FUTURITY CHAMPION & SLOT RACE CHAMPION

JORDAN BASSETT & MIMIS ON FIRE

Jordan Bassett...

South Buckeye Equestrian Center and the BRN4D have been so good to me over the years! I would have to say that's my favorite place to be! I have won over $100k in that arena. They put on two great futurities, with great payouts and awesome ground! (People were telling me Buckeye is my house, or Buckeye is the arena Jordan built-- ha!)

The Double Crown is given every year to the horse that wins the most money between both BRN4D futurities. To win first at both of them is such a huge accomplishment for Mimis On Firewater. Of course I am part of it but she's the one that did it. Her consistency is what every trainer dreams of at such a young age! I am just blessed she's taking me along for the ride!

Double Crown Champion!

Money won...

- Classic Equine Futurity
I won first in the first go 17.145, 5th in the second go 17.325, first in the Average, second in the Slot Race, for a total of $19,003 (without carry over money).
- Greg Olson Futurity
I won 2nd in the first go 17.183, 1st in the second go 17.133, 1st in the Average, and 1st in the Slot Race. I won the Double Crown bonus for a total of $30,532.00 (without carry over money).

I think her consistency is what got us to the pay window. As long as I do my job and look where I want her to go and stay square, she'll stay honest for me. At the Classic, in the first round, she rocked the second. I had her positioned a little bit too far out going into the turn which caused her to roll back too tight, but we were fortunate to stay standing. In round two, she did a little bit of the same thing at the third and I had to lift my leg.

The week between futurities I just exercised her lightly and tried to keep her fresh, which is pretty easy for her. On Thursday at the Greg Olson Futurity I changed my game plan a little bit. I usually like to breeze her through; then she'll be freer the next time I make a run—I opted not to. I felt like she already ran so hard the weekend before I didn't want to waste any runs on her, so I walked her through the pattern and hoped she had two good runs left for me! My dad, John Bassett was a Hall of Fame race horse trainer and also won the All American Futurity twice. He's had a huge impact on my career. One thing he has instilled into my head is that every run I make is one less, and because I feel this mare is so special, I want every single one to count!

At the Greg Olson I felt like my first run was not as smooth as the past two runs. She didn't get a very good start and I felt like we were out of position the whole run. I watched the video and surprisingly she looked great; I must have just been behind her. She loves her job and wants to please, so if she happens to be in the wrong position I know she's going to get gritty and try even harder for me.

My warm up before round two of the Greg Olson was a little different. In the first round, she didn't stay as round and was more rolling back. When I warmed her up for round two, I set up one barrel and loped her around it and asked her to really give in at the rib cage and keep forward motion. She's so smart she knew what I wanted from her when we took off to the first barrel—she was great! I know everyone was holding their breath as we were very close to them but she was just right to me and worked the best she had in the two weeks we had been there.

Mimis On Firewater is a 5-year-old palomino mare by Dash Ta Fame out of Firewater Fanny (multiple NFR qualifier with Amanda Clayman). She was bred by Harry and Vivian Blackwell of Naylor, MO. She was sold to Schiller Ranch of College Station, TX, where she was started by LaTricia Duke. Vickie Adams purchased her as a 2-year-old. Vickie then sold her to Webb Ranch LLC (Butch and Stephanie Webb) as a 3-year-old. Butch and Stephanie sent her to Ashley Schaffer. Ashley made an ERA commitment and the Webbs made a difficult decision to move her. The first time I threw a leg over her I knew she was going to fit me. LaTricia and Ashley did an outstanding job with her and have been great to me. Whenever I had any questions or needed some advice, they have always been there for me. I respect them so much as trainers and I cherish their friendships.

She's a typical Dash Ta Fame. She's a little bossy on the ground; I probably allow her to be more than I should. She's pretty strong when I warm her up but when I head to the gate her head drops and she's all business. I love it-- it's a cool feeling! I ride her every day in anything I can find, just not her running bit which is an Ed Wright medium shank twisted wire gag. I do lots of long trotting. She doesn't ever get worked on the pattern. As of right now she's doing everything right. I just want to keep her sound, happy and hungry for it. After I warm her up I get off her, that way my nerves don't hit her directly.

She was bred to be a winner. She has two half siblings that won over $100k each last year with Molli Montgomery, and a full sibling that was a standout as well. There is no doubt she has a ton of heart and grit. She loves what she does and craves it!

Right now she's going to rest for a week or two and then I'll start legging her back up and prepare for The Patriot and the Diamonds And Dirt Futurities the end of February and first of March. Our main goal is to have a winner for a long time, so we need to keep her sound and happy and hopefully she'll keep doing what she's doing.

I would like to thank all my family and friends. It takes a village and I couldn't do it without them! Of course, a huge thank you to my sponsors for believing in my program!
