

ELIN MILLER

Elin D. Miller is principal of Elin Miller Consulting, LLC and works with her husband, Bill, farming hazelnuts in Oregon. Elin serves on several national and local boards, including Cultivating New Frontiers in Agriculture Board (Chair), Board of Fall Creek Farm and Nursery, Vestaron Board (Vice Chair), Board of Neighborhood Work ® (Chair), and Umpqua Banks Divisional Board.

In May of 2011, she won her first race for public office, elected to the Umpqua Community College Board of Trustees and served four years. The National Future Farmers of America Foundation Board elected Elin to serve as Chair in 2015. She was elected to the Community Cancer Center, Oregon FFA Foundation and UCC Foundation Boards in 2017.

Before moving full time to Umpqua, Elin served as Regional Administrator for the Environmental Protection Agency, a Presidential Appointment, with jurisdiction over Alaska, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

Elin received her bachelor's degree in agronomy and plant protection from the University of Arizona in 1982 and was a Rhodes Scholar Finalist. She graduated from INSEAD's Advanced Management Program in France in 2000. Recently she attended Stanford Rock Center in Board Governance and completed an 18-month course in Excellence in Board Governance in 2016.
