

Couples' Dessert

The couples' dessert has become an annual tradition at our church. On Valentine's weekend we offer an evening for couples with great desserts and entertainment. We've had the newlywed game and we've had trivia nights. The couples at our church are great about inviting their unchurched friends. I usually present a short (10—15 minute) gospel message—just enough to let our guests know that God is the center of our lives and our relationships. More than anything it's one more opportunity for people to practice personal relationship evangelism.

Couples' Dessert 2013

This year we went with a Fame & Flames theme for dessert. The tables were decorated thematically with each table representing a famous couple. Our entertainment was a 30 question famous couple trivia with the winning couples receiving boxes of chocolate. The "Flames" came in with a flaming bananas foster dessert prepared tableside. An alternative option of brownies a la mode was also offered. We charge $5 per couple to insure commitment. I spoke on Ananias & Sapphira and Priscilla & Aquila—two famous couples with very different outcomes.

We had 40 couples show up for the dessert (seating is limited). As always it was a great opportunity for couples in our church to interact with couples from outside the church. Praise God for the eternal impact we have seen.
