

CARL H. BUMHOFFER

1920 - 1990

Carl Henry Bumhoffer, 70 of Sebewaing, died unexpectedly Thursday morning, July 26, in Waterloo, Iowa, while traveling on a farm equipment trip with his brother Leonard.

Mr. Bumhoffer was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on April 28, 1920, the son of the late Anton and Katherine (Metzger) Bumhoffer, and came to the Thumb with his family while still a child.

He married Leona M. Kuehn on April 28, 1945, in Sebewaing. Mr. Bumhoffer was employed for many years by John Brown of Elkton on an egg route. Later he was employed by C.J. Bolger Implements and Sebewaing Motor Sales, now Gettel Motors. He owned Bumhoffer Motor Sales in Sebewaing from 1965-1976, retiring from the automotive business in 1978. He was then employed by Engelhardt Petroleum, Inc. of Sebewaing, before retiring several years ago.

Mr. Bumhoffer was a member of Immanuel Church and served in many capacities. He was a longtime member of Lutheran Laymen's League, and was a member of Sebewaing Village Council for four years.

Surviving are his wife, Leona of Sebewaing, two sons, Charles J. of Sebewaing and Kenneth C. of Fairgrove, two daughters, Mrs. Edward (Carol J.) Ryan of Flint and Mrs. Steven (Catherine M.) Myers of Saginaw, six grandchildren; two brothers, Leonard and Edward Bumhoffer, both of Elkton, one sister, Gertrude Metzger of Saginaw, plus several nieces and nephews.

One sister, Mary Bambach, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon, July 29 in Immanuel Lutheran Church. Rev. Martin J. Hagenow, pastor, officiated and burial was in Silverlawn Cemetery, Sebewaing. Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider Immanuel Scholarship Fund or Immanuel School.
