

Screen Time

Across

- 2 One of many neighborhood theaters, it was a center of social life for West Uticans from the 30's to the 50's.
- 5 Standing since 1926, in 1953 this theater was the first and only complete CinemaScope installation in the Mohawk Valley.
- 6 This star of silent-film, came from a small rural Oneida County city that her great-grandfather founded.
- 8 This theater opened with a single-screen in 1927, and in 1959 became the first 70mm theater with its showing of Sleeping Beauty.
- 9 This film, starring Liza Minelli, was filmed on location at Hamilton College, Clinton.
- 10 "People of the Standing Stone" is a film account of an event during the Revolutionary War featuring this Native-American leader of the Oneida Nation.
- 14 At its grand opening in 1928, the silent film "Ramona" was featured.
- 15 Dunder-Mifflin had a fictional branch office in Utica in this TV sit-com.
- 16 WKTV hosted an after-school program with this popular red-haired clown.

Down

- 1 This host of a popular teen dance show got his start at a Utica TV station.
- 3 Utica was one of the filming locations for this comedy (1977) starring Paul Newman.
- 4 Born in Utica, this singer-actor became known for her ears.
- 6 Lyle Bosley was a long-time host of this game show for students.
- 7 WKTV enjoyed a monopoly in the Utica television market 1970, when this station signed on as an ABC affiliate.
- 11 This early Utica theater opened in 1907 with the silent movie, Ben-Hur.
- 12 Opened in Rome in 1928, this was the first theater to play new movies with sound.
- 13 Myron Kallet, owner of several movie theaters, branched into television and began this station in 1949.