43. History and Significance This is one of a number of small houses built by the KIL&T Co. for its quarry workers in the late 1920's. It is not shown on the 1924 Insurance Engineer's map of that company's holdings. In the 1920's an immigrant family by the name of Barolak lived here. They were one of a group of foreign workers that shared a plot of land now occupied by the Post Office.		27. Other Surveys in Which Included N/A
44. Description of Environment and Outbuildings Perched on the edge of excavated quarry land on 3 sides, the house sits above the road. On the south side is an access grade to the quarry floor. Being an early quarry area, the floor is now silted over and green.		46. Prepared by Betty Pape & Kevin Pape		5. Other Name(s) KIL&T Co. House
