

Tri-County Wood Turners
Minutes for the January 2017 Meeting

The meeting opened with club president Art Worth the leading the pledge of allegiance. John Williams provided the club with a short prayer.

The club meeting began at 6:30.

You will note there were no minutes for December 2016. This is due to the club's annual Christmas party. Food and Fun was had by all who participated. **

Changes:

The Florida Woodturning Symposium is January 27-29th at Lake Yale. There is still time and openings to sign up for this event. This year each demonstration location will have two screen projecting the turning activity.

The state fair is February 9-20th. This Friday January 13th is the deadline for entries. Additionally, the club will have a lathe there for members who volunteer to demonstrate during the fair. See Bill Freeze for tickets to enter the fair if you volunteer to demonstrate. The south entrance is suggested as the way to enter the fair grounds.

The AAW is offering a free 60-day trial membership to demonstrate the offerings of the AAW. Please take advantage of this benefit.

Show & Tell:

Show and tell consisted of bowls, sinks, urns, pens, and an earring holder.

Recognitions:

Guest and new members were recognized. Guests wishing to join the club were encouraged to see Bob Varner to sign up.

General Announcements:

Thanks to all who helped and participated in the 2016 Christmas party. In the future please no gag gifts like the fart machine that was given at this party. It was not received well. Gifts are required to be turned items or turning related.

There were 63 attendees to this night's meeting. Please sign the county's attendance sheet as it is passed around.

As always, a big thank you goes out to Jan and Carl Brown for their video work.

Carl and Jan's merry band of volunteers are also greatly appreciated.

There is $2584 in club bank account, $100 cash and $40 in pay pal.

Club DVD's are available for a $2.00 rental donation. See Bob Varner to donate and sign them out.

For Sale:

A de-humidifier was offered free and taken tonight. HF mini lathe 12x40 $70. Six 4' double bulb fluorescent lights for free. Other items are posted on the web site from time to time.

Raffle:

Tonight's raffle consisted of mostly donated wood. Several used tools were in the raffle. A big thank you goes out to Matt O'Conner for handling the raffle

Safety:

Safety is everyone's personal responsibility. Ed discussed the importance and risks in using a table saw. Remember never push material toward the blade with your hand in direct alignment with the blade. Pay attention to your feed rate. Have your blade guard in place. Additional safety materials can always be found on the AAW web site.

Demonstration:

Al Hockenbery provided an informative demonstration on turning green wood bowls. The lathe shield was in place and the demonstrator was using a face shield. Further information and tips regarding this activity can be found on the website. Information can also be found on Al Hockenbery's web site.

Closing:

As always, see everyone on February 1st for the clubs next meeting. Starting time is 6:30 sharp. Next month's demonstrator is John Williams and his famous epoxy process.

The AAW is currently voting for new board members. Please go on the site and cast your votes. Charles Sapp has withdrawn from the voting.

The FWS has open registration for next year's symposium. Interested persons should look toward registering soon, as this event fills up fast. Art Worth is going to replace Bob Varner at the FWS, as one of our club's volunteers. Bruce Woody and John Long will continue to volunteer.

Craftsman Supply on Busch Boulevard is moving and having store closing sales. Check for deals.

Advantage Lumber gave the club two $10 gift certificates which will be specially raffled at next month's meeting. Please consider this and be ready.

The board voted to bring up the concept of the club paying for the AAW annual membership dues for the club's officers. This is done at many other club's and should increase the pool of potential members who could serve as officers. Per our bylaws, officers are required to be AAW members. The cost to the club will be $300 annually. This appears to be a sustainable endeavor for the club. A motion for discussion was put on the floor and seconded. Items discussed pertaining to this matter were sustainability, other club expenses and club income. After the discussion, there was a vote. The motion passed with two dissenting votes. The next Turn & Learn is scheduled for October 14th at the Cultural Center. As with the last event Subway sandwiches will be the lunch fare. A sign-up sheet was circulated for interested persons.

Club DVD's are available for a $2.00 rental donation. See Bob Varner to donate and sign them out.

For Sale:

Glen has a free 6"x48" belt sander.

Items for sale are posted on the web site from time to time.

Raffle:

Tonight's raffle was suspended due to low summer attendance.

Safety:

The lathe safety shield was in place. Ed Knighton discussed the importance preparing and being safe for the impending hurricane. Additional safety materials can always be found on the AAW web site.

Demonstration:

Peggy Kopala provided an informative demonstration on how make decorative clay blanks for turning pens and other art forms. Further information and tips regarding this activity can be found on the website.

Closing:

As always, see everyone on October 4th for the clubs next meeting. Starting time is 6:30 sharp.
