Parent Agreement:

Release/consent/acknowledgement/assumption of risk: We (I) understand that camp life and activities have inherent risks including those of accidents, injury, and even possibly death. Safety is a primary goal at camp. Counselors are fallible, but they often have years of experience and go through a significant amount of training in First Aid, CPR, emergency action and skills. Activities include backpacking, hiking, horseback riding, dance, archery, gymnastics, waterskiing, canoe trips, whitewater rafting, swimming, field sports, games, camp life and more. Various risks include acts of nature, hail, lightning, etc. falling from stairs; as well as water related accidents or automobile accidents. To the extent allowed by law, we the undersigned waive, release, forever discharge and agree to indemnify and hold harmless 2228 Corporation dba Camp Point Clear or its agents and employees from all rights and claims for damages, injury, or loss to person or property which may be sustained or occur on and off the property during my child’s stay at camp. In addition, the camp is not a lockdown facility, and cannot be responsible for a minor who wishes to run away or leaves camp without permission. We further acknowledge that we will give, before camp begins, full disclosure of any preexisting physical or psychological conditions, challenges or problems that the child has. Any of these conditions must be accompanied by a doctor’s statement regarding the camper’s ability to participate.

My child and we (I) understand that she may be sent home for inappropriate behavior at the Director’s discretion with no tuition refunded.

We (I) hereby give permission to use my child’s name and picture and to publish them without debts or liabilities to us (me) of any kind.

We (I) have read and understand the terms thereof.
