

Garcia, Jacqueline

Jacqueline Mary (Kautz) Garcia, 56, of Denver, Colorado, passed away January 28, 2005. Jackie was born on February 4, 1948 to the late Carl Kautz and June Kautz. She was employed by J. Walter Thompson in Denver as an officer and broadcast production manager. She is survived by her son, John Carlos Garcia III, who is a fourth-year business economics major at the University of California-Davis. She is also survived by her mother, June Kautz, of Caro; and seven brothers and sisters, Joan Blake and her husband, Jack, of Pt. Pleasant, New Jersey, Joyce Higgins and her husband, Gene, of Prosperity, South Carolina, Judy Shannon and her husband, Ed, of Schaumburg, Illinois, Jeanie McGee and her husband, Pat, of Caro, Jim Kautz and his wife, Felicia, of High Shoals, Georgia, Jerry Kautz, of Athens, Georgia, Jayne Yount and her husband, Mark, of Bartlett, Illinois; and many nieces and nephews. A memorial Mass was conducted at St. Cajetan Catholic Church in Denver, Colorado, on Friday, February 4, 2005. Memorials may be made to the Jacqueline M. Garcia Fund at Rocky Mountain Law Enforcement Federal Credit Union, 700 W. 39th Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80216.