

The Proper Handshake

MCCTC

Career Based Intervention

Why is a proper handshake important?

- You never get a second chance. A first impression in business is very important. A strong handshake sets the tone and the perception of your abilities.
- A firm, strong handshake transmits your underlying confidence in yourself and your abilities.
- Would an employer really want an employee interacting with customers if they've got a clammy grip?

The Top 10 Bad Business Handshakes

Proper Way to Shake Hands

