Our mission is to provide a structured and positive learning environment that will foster creativity, self esteem & perseverance. Our staff will encourage dancers to learn technique, grace, coordination, body awareness and control. Our instructors are experienced College educated Professionals, holding Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in dance education. They are experts in the art of dance, movement and injury prevention.

The Dance Studio staff strives to give each dancer the "STAR" Treatment.

Regardless of race, color, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, Ethnic background, body type or ability, we are an inclusive environment.

Welcoming all to experience DANCE!!

Artistic Director-Angela Vital-Martowski

Angela began her dance career studying every aspect of dance. She studied locally at The New England Dance Conservatory and performed as a soloist with the New England Dance Theater. She spent her summers dancing at several national ballet programs and upon graduating high school, she received the Chancellor's Award from the University of Massachusetts. Angela passed on the award to study and perform with The Boston Ballet. She has also performed with Pittsburgh Ballet Theater, American Repertory Ballet Theater, Ballet South, Albany Berkshire Ballet, Hartford Ballet, Walt Disney studios, Universal Studios, MTV, and in local Theater productions. After leaving Boston, she returned to Western Mass to teach at her alma mater NEDC (New England Dance Conservatory). Angela received her certificate in Early Childhood Education and taught for 10 years at the Springfield JCC. Angela wanted to explore her vision of dance education. She received her degree in Ballet pedagogy from The Hartt School and in the fall of 2000 The Dance Studio opened its doors. Angela has spent 20 years growing this program and has dedicated her career to educating the public on dance and its benefits. She is a member of The National Dance Education Organization, National Dance Week and is certified in the Vaganova Ballet technique. She is currently on faculty at Springfield College as an adjunct Professor of Dance and movement. She has been awarded the Best of Boston Road Award twice for favorite dance teacher. Angela is certified in many group exercise techniques and has developed her own workout, Ballet Booty Boot Camp. BBBC is a barre style fitness class that is offered at The Dance Studio as part of the $5 fitness program. Angela and her husband Jason have 2 children and are celebrating 12 years of Marriage.

Faculty

Paige Fortier- Paige graduated valedictorian of Windsor Locks High school and holds a Master of Arts in Teaching and a Bachelor of Arts in Dance from Mount Holyoke College, and is a licensed K-12 Dance Teacher in MA and CT. She is currently an 8th grade Special education inclusion teacher in Southwick, Ma.

She has taught in the dance departments at Pioneer Valley Performing Arts Charter Public School, Amherst Regional Middle and High Schools, and Springfield Conservatory of the Arts. Paige has taught performing arts camps and choreographed community and children's musical productions, including Mary Poppins and Beauty and The Beast Jr. She recently choreographed a professional production of 'The Marvelous Wonderettes at The Majestic Theater in West Springfield, MA. Paige has studied and taught dance at All-Stars Dance Center in Westfield, MA. She has also studied tap at Steps on Broadway in New York City, facilitated and participated in a workshop for the Dance Education Laboratory (DEL) based out of the 92nd Street Y in NYC, and performed twice at the American College Dance Association Festival. Paige is very excited to be the head instructor of The Dance Studio Dance Team!

Cora Paul- Miss Cora, a faculty member at The Dance Studio since 2015, began her dancing career at the age of 13 and quickly joined the competition team. She realized that dance was her passion. Cora graduated valedictorian and was off to Bridgewater State University. She decided to be closer to her family and transferred to Springfield College. It was there that she met Miss Angie and fellow teacher Miss Jelli. Cora immersed herself in dance history, music theory, pedagogy, and numerous technique classes. She performed with the SC repertory company across New England, including the annual American College Dance Festival. She was also a member and choreographer for the Springfield College Dancers and took master classes with renowned choreographers such as Fritha Pengelly, Paul Dennis, Bill Evans, James Morrow, Jen Polins, David Bovat. Through her course work at Springfield College, Cora was given the opportunity to perform and teach at schools in the area. After graduating Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in dance, Cora has gone on to teach dance to all ages, both recreationally and competitively in many dance styles. Her choreographed works have been recognized and awarded platinum and first place titles.

Angelica (Jelli) Polk- Angelica holds a B.A. in Dance and Arts in the Community from Springfield College. Angelica was honored to have been both a featured dancer and on the cover of the 2016 New England Regional (ACDA) Dance Conference hosted at Springfield College. She has also had the opportunity to study abroad part of her last year in college and traveled to Italy for dance and visited Rome and Venice. Developing her craft for the past 24 years, she has become skilled in many dance forms (including Modern, Contemporary, Hip-hop, African and Jazz). She enjoys artistically challenging and enriching the lives of young people through movement. Angelica has lead workshops and taught many classes in various educational settings such as Zanetti Montessori Magnet School, Springfield College, and dance studios throughout Massachusetts. She is so proud to call The Dance Studio in Wilbraham her studio home and dance family where she has been the Hip-hop director and one of the team teachers and choreographers for 4 years now! Angelica has also choreographed works for Real Live Theatre's two year production of 'She Kills Monsters' and performed work for Tzmot Azstro's production 'Universal Womb.' Angelica is humbly elated to be both the Dance Educator and director of the Ambassadors of Spirit and Performance Team at Paulo Freire Social Justice Charter School. Jelli believes Through social justice, diversity and expression, we gain access to a creative process of opportunities!

Matt Guerrero- Matt is a graduate of Muhlenberg College where he earned his Bachelor's degree in Dance and theatre with concentrations in education, choreography, performance studies, and stage management. Matt has studied dance for over eighteen years in various locations throughout Connecticut and Pennsylvania as well as at the Broadway Dance Centre in New York City. He has received the award for Best Student Choreography at the 2015 KO Wyvern A Cappella Festival and most recently won a Broadwayworld.com award for best choreography (non-equity) for The Wizard of Oz. Matt also teaches at the Goodman Performing Arts Center in Orange, CT, Dance Central in Middlefield, CT, Pantochino Productions in Milford, CT, and Connecticut Family Theatre in West Hartford, CT. Throughout Connecticut, Matt has performed with various theatre companies as well as choreographed a multitude of shows for ages 6-25 with the Performing Arts Programs, East Hartford Summer Youth Festival, Wethersfield Teen Theatre, Tootin' Hills Elementary School, Connecticut Family Theatre, East Hartford Middle School, and Pantochino Productions. Matt has taught in various locations throughout Allentown, PA as well and has also performed professionally with the Muhlenberg Summer Theatre in My Fair Lady (Dance Ensemble) and Anything Goes (Dance Captain). During the spring of 2018 Matt studied dance in Arezzo, Italy at the Accademia Dell'Arte.
