

Date 06/24/17
Course Neshanic Valley (R/L) (69 /123)
Weather Perfect- low 80's brilliant sunshine

Yet another Dave Perry Neshanic day as he runs away from the field playing consistent golf amid a litter of empty Coors Light cans - ( the writer helped that cause). Despite dire looking early weather the sun came out full force as the dedicated hit the first tee. Conditions were great. Score cards were another issue, math errors , inverted nines ( hint- 1st nine is always odd handicap), missing pot results, 1 group had no real net card, another took an inordinate amount of time and still had errors - thank god there were only 9 players. Enough about me - Hail Dave King of Neshanic.
