WE SALUTE OUR SHEPHERDS

This Sunday we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday. We remember the many ways God provides for us and takes care of us. First, it's a day to give thanks to God for the gift of Christ, Our Good Shepherd (John 10:1-10). Secondly, it's a day to thank our mothers, biological or adopted, and all who play a mother's role in our lives for all they have done for us. Thirdly, it's a day for us adults (especially mothers) to examine how God uses us to shepherd his own.

This week Kevin Durant who plays for Oklahoma City Thunder accepted the NBA Most Valued Player award with an emotional speech. He basically said that his mother was the main MVP winner because of the vital and life-shaping role she played in his life. This is very true in every sphere of life, most importantly the spiritual sphere. The story of St. Monica – St. Augustine's mother – easily comes to mind. There would have been no St. Augustine without St. Monica.

Once again, we thank God who always provides for us shepherds to help us grow into the people he's calling us to be. Let us be aware that as adults, we are each called to shepherd (nurture, guide, help) someone else in their journey through this world. May God form us into good shepherds after the example of Christ the Good Shepherd - Amen.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

It's so fitting that we celebrate our mothers in the month of May when we celebrate our Blessed Mother, the greatest of mothers. We had a very beautiful May Crowning on Monday. We salute our mothers (and all who play mother's roles in our lives). May the Lord who called you to this vocation always grant you abundant grace with which to be a mother after His heart. Amen.

MONSIGNOR JOHN KENNEDY

Some of you have been asking if he's coming this year. We received information that he is coming. He arrives on May 21st and departs June 7th. Somewhere in-between, he will be away for five days. I am glad he's coming – I get to discuss with him about my dream of becoming a cardinal, a step to my goal/dream of being the first African pope. It pays to have a friend in high places!

FATHER DANIEL

I spoke with him and he's enjoying his vacation. Those who use Facebook already know that his sister's wedding went very well. I am sure he'll come back with more pictures. He's in the Southern part of Nigeria, far away from all the bombings.

PRAY FOR NIGERIA

Please keep Nigeria in your prayers, that God may help the security agents to find and rescue the kidnapped girls and also help our government (with help from other countries) to find a permanent solution to the growing threat of Muslim extremists. If you can, please join us this week, on Friday, May 16 at 5pm to pray for these two intentions. We will have a one-hour adoration and rosary before the Family Bingo Night at 6pm.

Have a blessed week!~

Father Raphael Ezech, MSP

MOTHER'S DAY PRAYER

Loving God,
You wrap Your arms around Your people
And show Your everlasting love in the same way
A mother loves her children.
We are grateful for the love You have taught us
Through the mothers in our lives:
Our own mother who brought us into this world,
The mothers of friends who have welcomed us
Into their homes and families,
Our grandmothers who took time for us,
And the mothers who have helped us
Even though we were not their children.
Bless all the mothers of this world today.
May they know the fullness of love they have shared
And be blessed every day of their lives. Amen.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

This is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The world needs leaders with courage and integrity. The Church needs good leaders as well; leaders who will unselfishly care for the needs of God's people and minister to them. Please remember in your prayers those who have answered and those who contemplate answering God's call to His service.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Gracious God,
You have blessed me with many gifts and talents.
Grant me the wisdom to know how best to use them
For the glory of Your name.
Jesus calls, "Come follow Me."
I want to follow Him and be faithful to my call.
Help me to see in myself what You see,
And give me the courage
To follow wherever You may lead.
Bless the Church with generous hearts,
Eager to serve Your people and to spread Your Word.
Amen.
