

Janice F. Moore, 81, of Cass City, passed away Tuesday, May 13, 2014, in St. Mary's Medical Center, Saginaw, following a short illness.

She was the only child born Nov. 30, 1932, in Deckerville, to Wesley Albert and Naomi Charlotte (Pearson) Dean. She married Donald Maurice Moore July 29, 1950, in St. John's Lutheran Church, Palms. He preceded her in death on Feb. 25, 2002.

Janice filled her life with music. After taking a music correspondent course, she gave lessons to many students in the Thumb area. She taught piano, organ, accordion and voice. Janice taught in area schools, including Port Hope Schools and in homes. Many years ago she was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Palms, where she served as church organist for over 25 years. Along with her son, Duane, Janice played in a band for many area events. She was a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Cass City. Janice enjoyed canning and camping, especially at Lighthouse Park in Port Hope.

Janice is survived by her children, Duane R. (Marsha) Moore of Bay City, Brenda Burns of Cass City; grandchildren, Terri (Derek) Hamp, Tracy (Nick) Messing, Tommy (Thomas Tiltman) Burns; great-grandchildren, Riley, Grant, Westin, and Jett.

She is preceded in death by her son-in-law, Thomas Burns.

Funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Friday in Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Cass City, with the Rev. Steven Bagnall officiating. Interment will be in Elkland Township Cemetery. Pallbearers are: Nick Messing, Derek Hamp, Russ Kern, Matt Dreher, Ed Nizzola, Dave Nye and Ed Burns.

Visitation will be from 2 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday, at Kranz Funeral Home, Cass City.

Memorials may be made to Family Discretionary Fund.
