Biography

David Clardie of Bad Axe, MI, age 82, went home to be with Jesus on Friday, April 26th, 2024. David was born on October 17, 1941 in Mound City, IL, son of the late Amos and Marion Virginia (Sisk) Clardie. He married Sheila Fadden on January 29th, 1965 Affectionately known as "Papa" to his grandchildren, David grew up as one of 10 children raised in the South by their feisty mother. Shortly after marrying his wife of almost 60 years, Sheila, they received Christ as Savior and began to follow a new purpose. David was called to ministry, and went on to grow various churches before pursuing a career in full time evangelism. It is impossible to tally how many thousands of people found Christ and experienced changed lives because of David and Sheila. Dave had a special way of endearing himself to people whether it was through his preaching, sitting next to someone at one of his grandsons' ballgames, or maybe a doctor or delivery person. David had a special gift and wit in communicating the gospel that drew people in. What we all will remember most is how he loved God, loved his family, and loved others enough to guide them toward Jesus. Well done, good and faithful servant!
