

2017-2018 WISCONSIN EMS WORKPLACE SURVEY

Wisconsin has over 17,000 active Emergency Medical Services (EMS) practitioners across the state. EMS workforce data are gathered from practitioners during the biennial license renewal cycle. This information provides insight into the changing dynamic and growing trends with EMS practitioners in Wisconsin. This document highlights results from surveys completed between October 2017 and June 2018.

YEARS IN EMS SERVICE:

24% of the workforce has worked for more than 20 years in EMS.

LOCATION OF SERVICE:

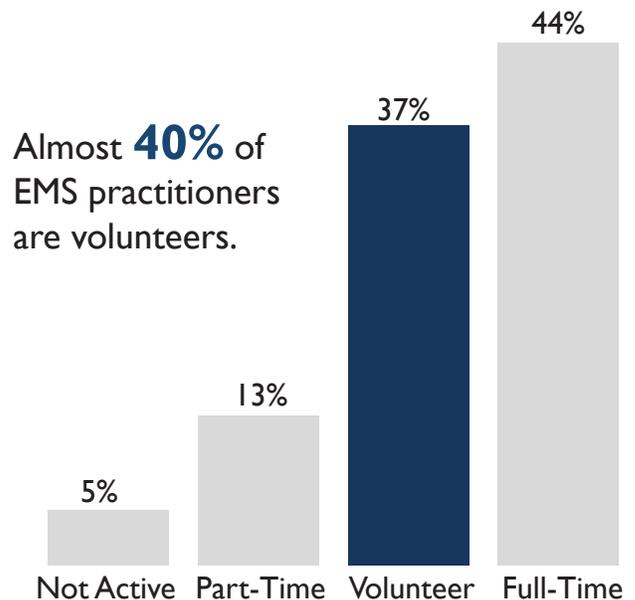

45% serve in urban areas

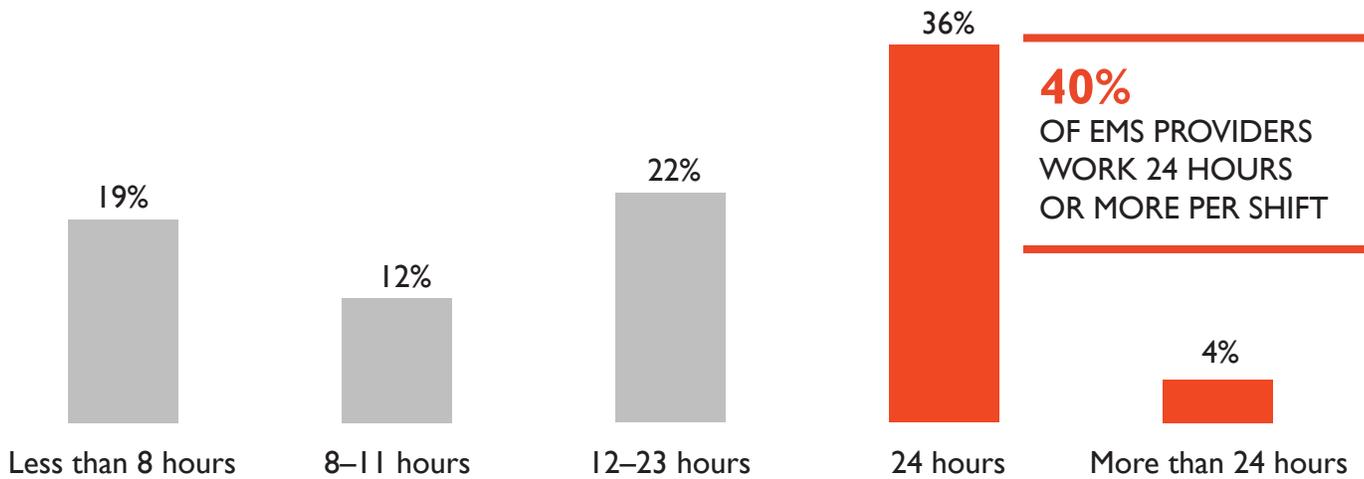

55% serve in rural areas

CURRENT STATUS OF EMPLOYMENT:

Almost 40% of EMS practitioners are volunteers.

EMS SHIFT LENGTH

EMS WORKFORCE COMPENSATION

*Compensation includes: paid on call time, paid per call, or non-monetary compensation, such as uniform allowance.

WISCONSIN EMS WORKFORCE EXEMPLIFIES DEDICATION.

Despite a large percentage of the workforce volunteering their time,

4 out of 5

EMS providers have not considered leaving service.

