

New from Weeks Roses for 2017

*Edith's Darling*TM

(cv. WEKaltjuchi, W5-14) PPAF

Soft Apricot Gold English Style Compact Shrub

- Class: Shrub
- Plant Habit: Short
- Growth Habit: Upright & bushy
- Stem Length: Short
- Foliage Color: Glossy dark green
- Disease Resistance: Good
- Flower Color: Soft apricot gold with lighter edge
- Bud Form: Pointed & ovoid
- Flower Form: Old fashioned & very full
- Flower Size: Medium, around 2½-3 inch diameter
- Petal Count: 50 to 65
- Fragrance: Strong fresh cut apple and fruity
- Parentage: All a'Twitter x Julia Child
- Hybridizer: Christian Bédard
- Introducer: Weeks Roses

Selling Points:

- Edith's Darling, the new addition to the popular series of roses inspired by Downton Abbey characters, is a fitting tribute to Lady Edith and her beloved daughter Marigold. The joy Edith finds in her daughter is what you will feel when you're growing this true old-fashioned soft apricot-gold gem of a flower.
- Although diminutive in size, with a short, compact & bushy habit, rest assured that Edith's Darling is perfect to fill a border or confined spot in the landscape with a great flowering show of full-sized blooms with long lasting coloration.
- This darling of a rose exudes a strong fresh cut apple and fruity perfume that evokes Edith's unconditional motherly love. Now use your clippers to bring some blooms into the house to create a warm and fragrant ambiance around the dining table!