

Dave Pauli

Dave Pauli has been a wildlife rehabber and animal advocate for 37 years. For the last 27 he has served The Humane Society of the United States in a variety of field and disaster response capacities. He currently is Senior Director of Wildlife Response & Policy and an active member of The HSUS Animal Rescue Team. Dave works on projects like Deer and Horse Contraception (remote darting); Prairie Dog translocations; turtle & reptile rescue, and responds to major cruelty, hoarder and disaster responses. This year spending over 7 weeks in Vieques, Puerto Rico and a week in Texas (Hurricane Harvey) and a week translocating an alligator, monitor lizard, python and 33 turtles from Montana to South East coastal sanctuaries. He lives in Billings, MT with a wide assortment of rescue and foster animals!