

Schlabach, Lloyd

Lloyd L. Schlabach, 83, resident of Powder Springs, Ga. died Saturday, Aug. 10, 2002. He was born May 26, 1919 in Thurman, Co. to the late Levi and Mamie (Schrock) Schlabach. Lloyd and Janette Coulston were united in marriage July 16, 1949. Since 1981 they have been summer residents of Fillion. Mr. Schlabach served in the U.S. Army from 1941 to 1945 in the 186th Infantry, Pacific Theater. He was a member of Western Hills Baptist Church in Kennesaw, Ga. He enjoyed gardening, farming, woodworking, writing, painting and Bible study. Lloyd is survived by his wife, Janette; four daughters: Rachel DelNero and her husband, Ron, of Hiram Springs, Ga., Ruth Wehde and her friend, Hugo Burdt, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Jeanne Ligon and her husband, Don, of Woodstock, Ga., Barbara Teeslink and her husband, D.J., of Santa Fe, N.M.; one brother, Douglas Schlabach and his wife, Judy, of Richmond; four sisters: Virgie Russo of Clarkston, Irene Kosal and her husband, Ray, of Davison, Lorraine Kudlak of Harbor Beach, Clara Schlabach of Detroit; six grandchildren: Chad Ligon, David Ligon, Matthew Peaslee, and Britney DelNero, all of Georgia, Brooke Wehde and Brant Wehde of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brother, Clyde Schlabach; and his brother-in-law, Tony Russo. Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 14, 2002 at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe. The Rev. DeWeerd Smith will officiate. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. Tuesday and 10 to 11 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. Burial will be at New River Cemetery in Port Austin. Memorials may be offered to the Gideons or the donor's choice.