

February/March Wrapped in Love Notes

Hello Everyone!

I hope you are all enjoying our fairly mild winter. Many of us are eagerly awaiting warmer, longer and sunnier days and they are just around the corner! Hopefully, the 82 shawls and blankets we sent out on 2/28 brought some warmth and comfort to our donor families. Once again, thanks to all of you for helping us honor and remember those who gave the gift of life.

Our beautiful handmade items continue to be appreciated. I would like to share the following notes of gratitude received from our donor families:

"This morning I received the most beautiful gift from The Sharing Network in memory of my dad. Not only is this handmade gift special for that reason alone, but it was made by a woman who shares the same name as my grandmother who passed away in 2008, Carol. I couldn't be more thankful for such a caring organization. I am forever grateful that I've had the support system that I do, but knowing that this organization puts so much love and care into making each grieving daughter, son, mother, father, sister or friend feel so cared for each step of the way is beyond anything words can describe. So a special thank you to Carol and the Sharing Network for sending us such a beautiful gift that will be treasured for so many reasons."

And this one:

"I just received a really nice scarf from your organization in remembrance of my wife's donation upon her passing. From the bottom of my heart I would like to thank you for your continued support. I will wear it proudly and tell all my friends about it."

And:

We also received a message from a donor dad, who lost his 22 year old daughter. He loves his blanket and sleeps with it every night!

Thank you for helping us to bring some joy into the lives of those who were able to say "yes" to donation in their deepest hours of grief. You know we couldn't do it without you!

Enjoy your day!
