

Hellertown Area Library looks forward to opening and serving our patrons. After moving into the Yellow Phase, as determined by the state, HAL will be using a phased in approach to resume operations. One of the first steps will be to offer curbside pick-up of library materials. Please watch our website for information as we safely resume patron services.