

Kamrad Jr., Steve C.

Steve C. Kamrad, Jr., 69, of Gagetown, passed away Thursday, March 30, 2006. He was born in Unionville on May 24, 1936, the son of Steve and Margaret (Ramig) Kamrad, Sr. On May 18, 1957, Steve married the former Grace Kanaby in Cass City. Steve was a member of St. Agatha Catholic Church, Gagetown, and had been retired from A.C. Spark Plug Division of General Motors. He had been a lifelong farmer and was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, Caro Lodge No. 1049. He was an avid hunter and fisherman and enjoyed passing the time working with wood. Surviving along with Grace, his loving wife of 48 years, are his mother, Margaret Kamrad; daughter, Tina (Kirk) Avery, of Baja, California; four sons, Ricky Kamrad, living in Detroit, Tommy (Mary) Kamrad, of Dearborn, Steven (Amy) Kamrad, of Unionville, and Brad Kamrad, of Gagetown; 12 grandchildren; and two sisters, Janice (Dave) Schobert, of Oscoda, and Joann (Ron) Kady, of Gagetown. Preceding Steve in death were his father, Steve, Sr., in 2004; son, Craig, in 1998; and daughter, Margie, in childhood. Mass of Christian burial was celebrated on Monday, April 3, 2006, at St. Agatha Catholic Church. Fr. Steve Filion officiated. The family has suggested memorials to United Hospice Service. Funeral arrangements have been made by Unionville Funeral Chapel, Unionville.
