

Gregory Paul Silisky

Feb 9, 2016

Gregory Paul Silisky, 50, of Caseville, died Sunday, Feb. 7, 2016, at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

Greg was born Jan. 11, 1966, in Warren, to Millie and the late Jerry Silisky. He attended Warren Schools. On July 29, 2000, he married Sally Brown at their home in Caseville.

Greg worked 17 years for Advance Door as a sales rep for commercial and residential windows and doors before working for Sally's Abstract for four years. He was a member of the Caseville Eagles Club, Caseville Rod and Gun Club, and the president of Thumb's Up RC Flying Club. He enjoyed his motorcycle, spending time on the water and outdoors, and all things remote control. Since 2002, he has lived an active and full life in spite of major heart problems.

He is survived by his wife, Sally Brown; mother, Millie Silisky of Warren; sister, Sherri (Darren) Laakso; aunts, Elaine Mysilicki and Irene Meyer; and nieces and nephews, Crystal, Carlie, Michael, Nicholas, Tyler, Jesse, Sarah, Nicole, John, Mackayla, Crystal, Michael and Stephen.

He was preceded in death by his father, Jerry; and uncle, Leo Nechyba.

Funeral services will be at noon Saturday, Feb. 13, at St. Roch-OLPH Catholic Church, Caseville, with Fr. Robert Howe presiding.

Visitation will be from 3 to 8 p.m. Friday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville, and one hour prior to services on Saturday at the church.

Memorials may be made to the Thumb Animal Shelter.
