Dear Parents,

The school has recently formed a committee on Mission Effectiveness and Catholic Identity in order to evaluate our current mission statement and the many ways ASA demonstrates it. A group of teachers has already met and proposed some changes to our current mission statement in an effort to make it more specific to All Saints Academy. At this time, we are looking for a few parents who would like to help in this endeavor and provide us with feedback. We will be asking some of our students for input eventually, as we want to be sure we are including our stakeholders – parents, students, faculty in the process before it goes before the Board of Trustees. In the meantime, if you are willing and able to help review our mission statement, please email me directly.

All Saints Academy has also assembled a committee to develop a strategic plan for the school. We have had a meeting with another group of teachers to begin formulating an outline of this plan. Once we have drawn up a more solid proposal, we will undergo the same process and will be looking for a few parent volunteers to provide input. Please stay tuned for more information.

The Comedy Night fundraiser was such a success – and so entertaining! Thank you to Julie Hamm for spearheading the entire event and all the parents who helped out with the organization, soliciting for sponsors, donations, setting up, breaking down, making, baking, and buying... It truly was a concerted effort! Thank you to the team of Katie Burke, Dan Fales, and Adam Stawiecki. Thank you to Nichole & John Dougherty, Megan Colvin, Nicole & Laurence Eldridge, Mrs. (Lynnette) Carron, Taryne Mead, Cathy Tetreault, Matthew & Danielle Wester for all their help the night of the event. Thank you to the Big Belly Café for providing the catering. Lastly, thank you all for attending, bidding, and buying every one of those generously donated items.

There was one omission on the All Saints Academy Honor Roll for second quarter: Grade 6 – Tanner Kreft has made First Honors. Congratulations!

Yours in Christ,

Joan E. Matys
