

Howard Peters Rawlings Conservatory Druid Hill Park Baltimore, MD

MEET THE IST ATA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS TALLEY HOLMES & LUCY DIGGS SLOWE

Talley
Washing
mathema
War I.
Upon ret
mathema
University
which wa

Talley Robert Holmes, Class of 1910, was born on December 9, 1888 in Workington, D.C. Mr. Holmes graduated from Dartmouth Callege in 1910 with a mothematics degree. He served as an interpreter and intelligence officer in World War I.

Upon returning to Washington, D.C., he taught German, French, Latin, and mathematics in the District school system. While teaching, he studied law at Howard University and received a degree in 1924. Mr. Holmes also owned Whitelaw Hotel, which was the largest hotel available to Negroes in Washington at the time.

Tailey Halmes was one of the founders of the American Termis Association (ATA) because the National Termis Association excluded Negroes and other people of color. He was national champion of the ATA in 1917, 1918, 1921, and 1924. He won the doubles championship eight times. Talley R. Holmes died on March 10, 1969 in Washington, D.C. at age eighty.

Lucy Diggs Slowe lost both of her parents by the age of six and went to live with her Aud Mortha Price. She toon moved from Lexington, Virginia to Baltimore, Maryland seeking greater life apportunity. At the age of 13, she entered the Baltimore segregated public school system.

Proving to be an exemplary student, Slowe graduated from the Baltimore Colored School in 1904, becoming the first female graduate and the first scholarship reciplent of the school to enter Haward University in Washington, D.C.

Slawe graduated as class valedictorian from Howard University in 1908 and accepted a feathing position at Dauglass High School in Baltimore. In 1911, the began studies at Columbia University's Graduate School of Arts and Science in New York. After completing a M.A. in 1915, continued with student personnel classes at Columbia's Teachers College.

Slowe's professional career included teaching assignments in Baltimore and later in the Washington, D.C. school system. In 1919, the first Black Junior High School was established in the Washington, D.C. school system with Slowe as principal. In 1922, Slowe was hired by Haward University as the Dean of Women, a first

In 1935, the helped organize the National Council of Negro Women and became its secretary. She helped found the National Association of College Women and become its first president. She also worked with the and Freedom organization.

Christian Association (YWCA) and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom organization.

As an undergraduate in 1908, she was a founding member of the first Greek letter scrarity for black women. Alpha Koppa Alpha. The scrarity has remained continuously active from 1908 to the present and after 103 years in existence, touts a membership of over 260,000 college educated women worldwide.

