

ESTABLISHED

Rachael Martin 2,24,2017

Establish: set up (an organization, system, or set of rules) on a firm or permanent basis. Synonyms: start, initiate, institute, form, found, create, inaugurate

Romans 8:29-30 - God knew what he was doing from the very beginning. He decided from the outset to shape the lives of those who love him along the same lines as the life of his Son. The Son stands first in the line of humanity he restored. We see the original and intended shape of our lives there in him. After God made that decision of what his children should be like, he followed it up by calling people by name. After he called them by name, he set them on a solid basis with himself. And then, after getting them established, he stayed with them to the end, gloriously completing what he had begun.

Just a friendly reminder to all of our readers that God is in the creation business and He always finishes what He starts. The word establish came to mind as I was thinking about the weekend word.

I know everyone is in a different place in the plans God has for each of us but His promises to take us through, to start a new thing, to form the beginning of a work He has already established for you and I - before the foundations of the earth, are miraculously continuing to manifest and come to fruition in your life and mine. Believe!

I pray that each of you take hold of His promises to lead and guide us in all things and that we are aware of where He is working because He is always showing us infinite possibilities to live and continue to be His hands and feet right where we are.

He calls you and I by name because someone Who knows us personally won't just say "Hey you!" – they will get on a personal level, and help us see that we have purpose and there's a reason for what is happening, always! He has an established agenda for each of us. I'm sure some of us have been working on the agenda or we are just starting to see something tangible unfold and maybe there will come times when we need to step away and come back, and even walk away and allow someone else to take the reigns, but God will always make the best decisions for us and He's readily available and desiring to release His plan to us.

Ask and it will be given to you, seek and you will find, knock and the door will be open. He establishes GREAT things – and what He starts – He sure enough wraps it up in a Godly fashion! Lean on Him – He will establish you.

I wrote a song back 2001 entitled "The Proper Time" and the who knew... how faithful God is to establish this way back then – that I would share the lyrics today. Maybe soon I will put in on my praise page and youtube.... We shall see. ☺

The Proper Time

*How quickly we forget – losing track of time
Fifteen minutes late – get a ticket pay the fine
It only takes a minute to remember
What sin has put you through
Resist it – here's the reason – He will establish you!*

*The proper time – will come to pass
Standing firm – humble yourself
You may not be in darkness – but you were there once before
Now God chose you – to touch the world*

*Looking down the road – far as the eye can see
I pray my feet won't turn from – where the Lord is leading me
I've gotta be prepared to run from evil – and immorality
And speak the words of Jesus – that the lost will be set free!*

*The proper time – will come to pass
Standing firm – humble yourself
You may not be in darkness – but you were there once before
Now God chose you – to touch the world*

~ Let your light shine – it is the right time ~ (repeat & fade)
