

Hughes, Harley W.

Harley W. Hughes, 67, of Columbiaville and formerly of Gray, Ky., passed away at home Thursday, Jan. 10, 2008.

Harley was born Dec. 29, 1940 in Gray, Ky. to William and Anna (Durham) Hughes. He was retired founder of King-Hughes Fasteners Corporation of Imlay City and spent 40-plus joyous years in the Hog Ring business. He proudly attended Columbiaville Assembly of God and also was a member of Masonic Lodge Verona Huron #365.

Harley is survived by his wife Sandra (Hinton) Hughes of 44 years; son, James H. Hughes (Michelle) of Emmet; daughter, Julie R. Hughes Viger of Columbiaville; four beautiful grandchildren, Daniel J. Viger, Whitney H. Hughes, Preston J. Hughes and Annika M. Hughes; wonderful sisters, Lee Wanda Kahler of Armada, Eva Geraldine Wojtyniak of Roseville, Janice Marie Brock (Jay) of Gray, Ky. and Barbara Sue Edwards (Andy) of Gray, Ky.; and sister-in-law, Norma Goodwin Hughes-Smith.

He was preceded in death by his parents Arvil and Anna Hughes; brother, Arnold Wayne Hughes; sister, Ruby Jean Hughes; and brothers-in-law, Robert Kahler and Mike Wojtyniak.

Funeral Service was conducted at noon Monday Jan. 14, 2008 at the Columbiaville Assembly of God. Pastor Dale Hollins officiated. Interment in Meadowlawn Cemetery in Columbiaville.

Arrangements by Lynch & Sons Funeral Directors, Capstick Chapel, 542 Liberty Park, downtown Lapeer.

Memorials may be made to Columbiaville Assembly of God Church.