

TOWN OF NORTH PROVIDENCE AND TOWN OF JOHNSTON

NORTH PROVIDENCE ANIMAL SHELTER VACCINATION CLINICS

Mayor Charles A. Lombardi, along with Mayor Joseph Polisena, are happy to announce that the Towns of North Providence and Johnston have received an Animal Welfare Grant from the Rhode Island Foundation in the amount of $7,500.00. This grant will be utilized to assist residents of North Providence and Johnston with the costs associated with preventative veterinary care of their cat or dog. The Vaccination Clinics will provide rabies vaccinations for pets of Town residents, and will be held on Saturday, October 16, 2021 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m., and Saturday, October 30, 2021 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m., at the Governor Notti Park recreation hall, 1801 Douglas Avenue, North Providence, RI. A voucher for up to $80.00 will be provided to the residents toward the vaccinations of their cat(s) and/or dog(s). Any fees incurred over and above the $80.00 voucher are to be paid directly by the pet owner.

The following requirements for the utilization of the voucher are as follows:

- Cats and dogs must be at least three (3) months of age to receive vaccinations.
- All cats must be in a pet carrier.
- All dogs must be on leashes.
- The voucher is only valid the day of the clinic for services provided by the Salmon River Mobile Vet.
- The Town of North Providence and the Town of Johnston are not responsible for any fees incurred over and above the Pet Preventative Care Veterinary Voucher of $80.00, nor are they responsible for any complications which may arise from the vaccinations.
- Vouchers are for owned cats or dogs and not available to rescues or shelters.
- Vouchers will be available until such time grant funding is exhausted.

You must provide valid identification showing you are a resident of either the Town of North Providence or the Town of Johnston. No services will be provided for anyone residing outside these two communities. If you have any questions, please contact Animal Control Officer Ernest Calandra at ernest.calandra@northprovidenceri.gov.
