Biography

Jennie G. DeBoer, 101, of Sand Point, passed away Saturday, November 9, 2019 at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe. Jennie Beach was born April 8, 1918 in Caseville Township to the late Miles and Anna (Morse) Beach. She was a 1934 graduate of Pigeon High School and a 1936 graduate of the Detroit Business Institute. Jennie was employed in several attorney's offices, including the prosecuting attorney's office in Bad Axe. On September 30, 1940, she was united in marriage to Earl R. DeBoer of the Michigan State Police. He preceded her in death on May 5, 1995, after 55 years of marriage. During this marriage they lived in Bad Axe, Sandusky, Bay City, Rockford and Utica before retiring to their home on Sand Point in 1976. Before retiring and moving to Sand Point, Jennie continued employment at various positions. Jennie was an active and dedicated member of the Caseville United Methodist Church where she served as secretary for many years, organized many activities and dinners and was a member of the church choir. She was also a lifetime member of the Caseville Library Club, previous member of both Scenic and Hidden Harbor Golf Clubs and for many years she was an active participant in the yearly Holly Berry Fair in Caseville. Jennie enjoyed traveling, reading, doing crossword puzzles, was an avid bridge player, enjoyed all types of card games and other games as well. She loved family get-togethers and preparing delicious meals for them.
