

Bruderick, Anita

Anita J. Bruderick, 58, of Minden City died Thursday, Oct. 19, 2000, in St. Mary's Hospital, Saginaw, of injuries from a car accident. She was born April 11, 1942, in Deckerville, the daughter of Leslie and Helen (Washe) Grice. She married James Bruderick on Nov. 7, 1959, in Palms. She was editor of the Lakeshore Guardian, a member of the Sanilac Mental Health Board, Blossoming Rose Committee and Horseback Riding for the Handicapped. She is survived by her husband, James, of Minden City; five sons and three daughters-in-law, Dean Bruderick and his wife, Denise, of Marlette, Richard Bruderick and his wife, Colleen, of Lake Orion, Mark Bruderick and his wife, Dawn, of Clarkston, Clark Bruderick of Deckerville, and Keith Bruderick of Lake Orion; one daughter, Jackie Bruderick of Chicago; 12 grandchildren; three brothers, Robert Grice of Oscoda, Jack Grice of Janesville, Wisc., and Richard Grice of Ada; one sister, Mrs. Kay Zimmerman of Lake Havasu, Ariz., and her mother, Helen Thompson of Deckerville. Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 24, 2000, at Faith Gospel Tabernacle, Bad Axe. The Rev. Michael Becker will officiate. Burial will be in St. John's Cemetery, Palms. Visitation will be 3 to 9 p.m. today in the Apsey Funeral Home, Deckerville.