Mission: to ensure the safety of residents—to preserve the integrity of the neighborhood—to increase the value of homeowner property

Come and join the fun time we have planned for our neighborhood get together.

Bring your whole family: children & adults! There will be activities for all.

We'll provide hotdogs and all the trimmings, chips and bottled water.

You are asked to bring your favorite side dish and something to sit on.

Creekside Update

The “weeping” vacant lot at 7104 Creekside has been an ongoing concern for some years now.

Watershed Protection has determined the berm of the retention pond in the AISD Bus Lot is insufficient and has made AISD aware changes need to be made to ensure water run off goes into drain system and not onto the Creekside property.

Our Annual Neighborhood Garage Sale Date has been set for Saturday, October 6, 8a.m–2p.m.

Hopefully this gives us all plenty of time to prepare.

We will post the Garage Sale in the newspaper and on social media.

It’s always good to have at least one person helping you with your sale — things can get busy and hectic.

Or you may want to partner with a neighbor. It can be a very fun time!

Reminder: We will take our usual summer time off so the next newsletter will be sent in September.

Are you a member of the Coronado Hills/Creekside neighborhood? (Pssst...if you’re reading this newsletter, you probably are.) Do you have ideas you would like to share? Please consider becoming a board member of the CHCNA. New officers will be nominated and elected this Fall (September 2018). You can also nominate YOURSELF for the office of President, Vice President, Secretary, or Treasurer. Don’t just talk about it...do something!
