Introduction to Liturgy of the Word

- Genesis 15:5–12, 17–18 In a holy covenant, God promises Abram a homeland.
- Psalms 27 “The Lord is my light and my salvation.”
- Philippians 3:17–4:1 Christ will change our lowly body or 3:20–4:1 to conform with his glorified body.
- Luke 9:28b–36 His face changed in appearance and his clothes became dazzling white.

Two dramatic scenes are narrated to us today. First, God seals the covenant with Abram by appearing as smoke and fire and passing between the animals Abram had sacrificed as a sign of his covenant with God. In the Gospel, Jesus is transfigured in glory, his face and clothing changing in appearance and dazzling the three apostles who witnessed it. Adding to the drama, God the Father speaks from the cloud that envelops them all, saying, “This is my chosen Son; listen to him.” Let us now listen to the word of God.

Spiritual Life Committee

St. Patrick | March 17

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family. His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.

St. Patrick
